

Dear Prospective Chamber Member:

Becoming a member of GECC opens the door to many opportunities, both business and community related. The possibilities for new business relationships, friendships, and local interaction are endless! GECC membership is one of the greatest investments you can make and is formulated for the small business budget. We offer a variety of networking programs, business education workshops, referral teams, and community involvement opportunities. We strongly encourage our members to participate in as many of these programs as possible to maximize the results of their investment in GECC.

- Logo, link, and directory recognition on Chamber website
- Monthly morning “Coffee & Commerce” Networking
- Monthly Lunch & Learn business seminars
- Monthly general interest Luncheon
- Member open-houses and ribbon cuttings
- Access to hundreds of member-only training videos
- Complimentary exposure at GECC booths for local events and festivals
- Exposure through Chamber events such as the annual Hot Tamale Chili Cookoff
- Advertising opportunities through Chamber marketing resources
- Access to weekly closed networking referral teams
- Access to weekly open networking
- Quarterly Business After Hours receptions
- Member-to-Member referrals and discount programs
- Promotion of YOUR events through Chamber resources
- Involvement in local charities and projects benefiting the cities we all live and work in

The Greater Eastside Chamber welcomes your questions and input. If we can be of any assistance as you get involved with GECC and begin to take advantage of all the great things the Chamber has to offer, please feel free to email us at info@eastsidechamber.com or contact Director of Membership, Angie O’Kelley at 770-789-1584.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we’d like to again thank you for your interest! We look forward to meeting you soon and helping your business plug into all the great things that GECC offers. We also look forward to your involvement in making the Greater Eastside Chamber of Commerce the organization “Where Business and Community Meet!”

With Pride in Local Business,
